George & Erin,

Thank you for speaking with us earlier today. This email is to confirm the deposition dates, now that we've addressed scheduling, and to memorialize the information regarding Prof. Papazoglou.

First, as promised, Steve and I caucused to go over schedules given the availability of Father Karloutsos and George. Attached are amended notices of deposition reflecting that we'll take the Patriarch Representative (i.e., Father Karloutsos) on March 13th and George on the 15th. We've noticed the depositions for the Wong Flemming office, but will work with you on identifying a different location more convenient to Father Karloutsos and counsel.

Second, we want to memorialize the information that you provided concerning Prof. George Papazoglou. It's our understanding that Prof. Papazoglou has refused to appear for any deposition, and has done so after being asked to sit for his deposition by a member of the Patriarchal private office, Father Aetios, who is the Grand Ecclesiarch. As referenced on the call, Princeton will make a decision on what to do with respect to Prof. Papazoglou's refusal following the completion of the other depositions.

Regards,
